Event Purpose:

This is an opportunity for young ballplayers to experience professional, hands on training and baseball instruction. Players will workout at their respective positions each week and then be broken up into teams to play games. The league will be covered on www.amateurbaseballreport.com and stats will be posted as well as ABR Fall League Player Rankings at the end of the fall. Week 7 of the ABR Fall League will consist of a Scout Day where players will be evaluated in a tools showcase by our ABR Scouts and the results will be posted in the form of a player profile on www.amateurbaseballreport.com
