

Auburn University

Showcase Tournament

June 19-20, 2010

The Amateur Baseball Report and USSSA Baseball are looking for 16 elite high school age (15-18u) teams to compete in the Inaugural Auburn University Baseball Showcase. Beautiful Samford Stadium, home of the Auburn Tigers, will be the host field of the event. Players from each team will have the opportunity to be evaluated by College Coaches and Major League Scouts through both an ABR ID Camp and a USSSA Showcase Tournament, powered by ABR.

Friday, June 18th:

ABR ID Camp (Location TBD, will not be held at Auburn University and open to players not in the tournament)

- Five tools skills evaluation (hitting, fielding, speed, power, arm strength). Pitchers & catchers will undergo a separate evaluation.
- Each College Coach and Major League Scout will be given an ABR Scout Book that includes information on each player at the event.

Saturday & Sunday, June 19-20th:

USSSA Showcase Tournament (Powered By ABR)

- Each team will play four round robin games, two on Saturday and two on Sunday. Teams are guaranteed at least two games at Auburn University, on Samford Stadium.
